DeWitt Bakery Owner to Appear Live on Television in Detroit and Chicago

DEWITT, MI (September 23, 2010) – Linda Hundt, owner of the national award-winning bakery, Sweetie-licious Bakery Café in DeWitt will appear live on FOX 2 News Detroit's Sunday morning news segment on September 26 at 8:15 a.m. EST. She will also appear on the nationally televised Chicago's WGN Lunchbreak segment on Monday, October 4th at 1:00 p.m..EST. Linda will be discussing and demonstrating delicious fall pies in both segments and sharing some of her baking secrets to the audiences.

Linda and Sweetie-licious Bakery Café has won thirteen first place ribbons at the Crisco National Pie Championships in the last four years as well as winning the coveted Best of Show Food Network Amazing Pie Challenge in 2009. She and/or her recipes have appeared in numerous national magazines including Country Living, Midwest Living and Parade.

“I am always thrilled to demonstrate the lost art of pie baking and to encourage others to continue the treasured tradition. I especially love making fall pies, as there is nothing more comforting than a slice of rich and creamy pumpkin pie!” Linda explains.

Linda is the owner of the famous Sweetie-licious Bakery Cafe, a vintage-style bakery in downtown DeWitt, Michigan, just north of Lansing. The nationally recognized Hundt is known for her 50s-style dresses and aprons, her pearl necklaces and her pearls of “pie wisdom” including her mantra, “Eat Pie and Love Life.”
