Good Food, Good Deeds, Good Lives!

Our Winter 2017 Newsletter

It's a New year, and a New you!

Our Michigan winter has felt very indecisive and unsettled this year, much the way many of us feel at the start of a new year, especially this one. One day, it's daintily snowing beautiful, fairy snowflakes, and another day, it's raining dismal sleet. I'm wishing for more snow, skating, and sunshine, personally. I think we can all get stuck in the blues of the winter; whether it be cabin fever, politics, diets, or a host of other bothers. However, I think "PollyAnna" had it right, playing the "glad game," with her delightful, gratitude attitude. The fictional character was insistently declaring to folks, to be glad for all that we have, instead of being sad, for what we have not.

Realistically, we sometimes have choices in matters, and other times, not so much...but, at the end of the day, it's how we view our days that count. And looking through new lenses that the New Year's wind wisps in, is a perfect way to start! Getting healthy and fit, enjoying time away, nesting, breathing crisp air, baking warm treats, snuggling in favorite quilts, sharing Sunday dinners and cozing around fireplaces with those we love, are many of winter's pleasures, that I treasure, and I'm sure you do too!

So, I believe, for this new year, we keep looking forward, to all the gladness we can put back into the world, and make the changes we feel passionately about - to make our lives, and those around us, richer, and more meaningful. Stop in, I would love to see you! - Xoxolinda

Jammie Cookies

These are the perfect little gems to bake on a wintry day, and so easy! You can make with any kind of jam, but are wonderful with fig or date jams and/or marmalades too, and perfect with a hot cup of tea or a cold glass of milk!

1 cup of butter softened
1/2 cup white sugar
2 egg yolks
1/2 tsp of vanilla
1/8 tsp of salt
2 1/2 cups of flour
1/3 cup of jam

Preheat oven to 350.

Beat butter and sugars until fluffy. Add vanilla and egg yolks until mixed. Whisk flour, salt. Mix into mixture, just until blended. Refrigerate until very firm. Roll into one inch balls, roll in sugar, and place on ungreased baking sheet, one inch apart. Make an indentation in the center of each cookie ball, and fill until just full. Bake for fifteen minutes or until golden brown.

Sweetie News...

• We are still over the moon, humbled, and so beyond excited to be featured as one of the '20 Most Legendary and BEST Pie Shops in ALL of America' by USA Today! Such an honor!
